SWITCHwireless

SWITCHwireless is a Sprint Certified Business Dealer (CBD). And that certification makes ALL the difference.

So, whether you are already a Sprint certified reseller, an independent sales representative or new to the wireless industry, SWITCHwireless has the ability to pay you a higher commission than you can get anywhere else.

And, our CBD certification also means that more Sprint services and resources are available to your customers, not to mention that your customers will love the support that our Customer Service Team provides.
